

The Thousand Turkey Challenge Interfaith Coalition presents:

The 2013 Thousand Turkey Challenge

INFORMATION SHEET

Help us help West Side Campaign Against Hunger provide Thanksgiving turkeys to low-income families.

Last year, thanks to the Challenge, over 1800 families visiting the emergency food pantry received turkeys and other special food for the holiday.

How do I get involved?

1. ATTEND The Thousand Turkey Challenge Kick-Off Event on Tuesday, November 19, 2013, from 6:30 to 8:00 PM at West Side Campaign Against Hunger at 263 West 86th St. between Broadway and West End Avenue in the basement of the Church of St. Paul and St. Andrew.
 - Learn more about the important work done by WSCAH
 - Hear a presentation about hunger and the need for giving
 - Sign-up to hand out flyers at local grocery stores and apartment buildings to promote the event
 - Enjoy refreshments for adults and children
2. GET THE WORD OUT to family and friends by distributing flyers and emails to your social networks and encouraging people to buy turkeys and bring them to WSCAH.
3. BUY a frozen turkey at your local grocery store and bring it to WSCAH at the following dates and times:

Monday, Nov. 25 9:00 AM-8PM

Tuesday, Nov. 26 9:00 AM-8PM

Wednesday, Nov. 27 9:00 AM-12Noon

4. SIGN-UP to work a shift to receive donated turkeys at WSCAH during one or more of the drop-off dates. To sign-up, visit <http://bit.ly/1cnbGWE>.

5. DONATE money to WSCAH. Make an on line donation at wscah.org or make checks to WSCAH and send to the address below. $18 buys one turkey.
